THOSE negroes who were fined

$30.00 each at Atlanta did not feel like Rockefeller even for a minute.

PARIS women are reviving patches as aids to beauty. They are not the old, familiar kind of patches, however.

REPORTS show that prohibition is reducing the U. S. treasury receipts.

But there is more money in the hands of the people.

We are now presenting the spectacle of a woman dancing on her hands. This appears to be the first it, but you never can tell, in these days of advancing civilization.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT carried back with him from Kentucky a jug of 30-year-old whisky. As this liquid is sometimes called embalming fluid, the memories of the Roosevelt administration should be well preserved.

MR. BRYAN says he will not run for president next time, but will have an important hand in naming the candidate. Some of us have a remembrance that this is the very thing which Mr. Bryan so severely criticized in Roosevelt, who was active in naming his successor.

Recognition by Odor.

Every person exhales a recognizable individual odor, even if we cannot ourselves recognize it. It is the contention of a writer in La Chronique Medicale, translated for the Literary Digest. He says:

"It is certain that every individual, in every nation, has his own personal odor, more or less pronounced in different subject, but always existent. It is marked when two different races come in contact. The negro and the yellow races have for the European quite a characteristic odor, which affects our olfactory more or less disagreeably. The reverse is also true—the white race exhales a perfume that is not at all pleasant to the Asiatic sense of smell. Negroes and Chinese say that the white man has the odor of death—a heavy, flat smell. According to Herve and other anthropologists, negroes have a most marked odor—that of a goat. Dr. Matignon says that the Oriental countries have so characteristic an odor that one of his friends, for several years in the foreign affairs office, asserted that when he was in the minister's private office he could always tell of the arrival of a dispatch box from Peking or Tokio solely by its odor.

Besides this radical odor there is an individual odor, scarcely or not at all appreciable in some persons, pronounced in others. No matter how slight it is, a dog will recognize it and follow it."

After describing some of the popular traditions that ascribe to dogs gains delightful odors such as those of roses or lilies, and to sorcerers diabolic odors of sulphur or of burning flesh, the writer goes on:

"Without dwelling longer on legends, we may assert that red haired persons have especially strong odors.
People with dark pigment, or brun-nets, have an odor different from that of blondes. The personal odor varies in quality and intensity with the hour of the day, with the moral condition of the subject, with the state of his nervous system, with the thousand and one variable conditions of daily life. Hysterical persons have an odor of violets, and this odor changes if a different modality enters their psychic or physical state.

an agreeable odor? I do not think that physiologists have ever found a plausible reason. It is true that these odors, whether good or bad, are not in most cases well developed, and that consequently they are perceptible to only a small number of persons, but they do exist in every individual; the scent of his master which the dog follows for long distances and over numerous obstacles is a proof of this. If we do not perceive, except under special conditions, the odor exhaled by our own species, we must attribute it to the imperfection of our sense of smell."

If you fail to hear Perry tomorrow night at the opera house you will miss a rare treat. He is one of America's leading artists, and you have never heard the piano until you hear him play. Tickets at Jarvis & Williams' drug store.

Invitations have been received here to the wedding of Miss Carrie Soule, daughter of Dr. Benjamin B.
Griffith, to Mr. Herbert Alexander Martin, which is to occur at Paducah next Saturday evening. Both parties reside in Paducah. Mr.
Martin is well known here, where he lived for several years, and his bride-to-be is one of the bright young women of Paducah. Many friends here are extending congratulations and best wishes.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a Stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the Heart or Kidneys.
It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the Stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That old fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove.
A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once, and see!
Sold by all dealers.

The Mock Trial.

The Book Club, which is raising funds to furnish the ladies' waiting room at the court house, is arranging a mock trial, to be given at the court house on Friday night, February 26. The case will be a breach of promise suit, the plaintiff being a prominent young lady here, the defendant a lawyer at the local bar.
The case will be ably presented and adroitly defended, and the audience will be highly entertained. This will be the first entertainment of this kind ever given here, and will draw a large audience. The entire proceeds will be given to the furnishing of the ladies' room, as everyone is donating his services.

Dr. A. Lewis is still improving, and it is hoped will soon be out.

Beef hides wanted, and best cash prices paid by J. E. Coombs & Co.

Judge Q. B. Coleman remains about the same, and is still confined to his bed.

Mrs. M. B. McDonald has been in very serious condition for some days, but was reported as resting somewhat easier yesterday.

Mr. Tom Standfield and Miss Willie Van Cleve, of Central City were married at the home of Rev.
G. B. McDonald at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Rev. G. B. Mc-Donald performed the ceremonies.

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Apples Are Man's Natural Food

The apple was first served by Eve. There is as much difference in apples as in men, and we believe we have some apples for sale now that are better than the kind Adam ate—and those were tempting enough.

CHOICE, JUICY, TIMELY FLAVORED APPLES are grown only in certain places where the climate is right, where their cultivation is understood and perfected.

WE KNOW WHERE TO GET THEM
If you like good apples try ours. Some other good things we have in the fruit line is nice Florida sweet oranges, large Florida grape fruit, Tangrines, etc.

Serious Sermons.
To the difficulties we fear we find ourselves.
The lights of the world are seldom burning to speak.
No man falls behind by setting others before him.
The empty head always does a lot of verbal advertising.
A bag of wind is a poor thing with which to lift the world.
He who always gets what he desires rarely desires what he gets.
Worshipping the milestones does not hasten progress along the way.
A man's mocking at money has little meaning if he has no means.
Only the weakling fears either to fight his thoughts or to follow them.
Of all the devil's disguises the worst is that which lures from love.
The honesty of our cries for justice is seen in our attitude to the poor.
Never is truth more eloquent than when it is sure it can afford to be silent.
You never know how much patience a man has until he has power over others.

The man who is proud of those in his head.
No matter what his title, he is a slave who lets his belly run away with his head.
